
Track Day July 8 - Casual Timed Laps

Posted by MountainRunner - 2009/06/06 16:31

Hey Guys,

The next track day will be for casual timed times. The morning session has been setup to be especially good for beginners with the Sprint and Clubman track. Half time on each to have a go.

Hopefully the weather will stay dry this time and we have a full grid.

What a huge event. Thanks to everyone who came and enjoyed.

Here are the lap reports, loaded into the Gallery.

There were problems in the morning with timing so a few sessions were lost. Also they forgot to split the data for Clubman and Sprint track.

Have a look at the front of the website for the Holy Grail entries. I should have photos soon from the photographers to finish it off.
